Attn: entertainment listings/calendar for February 2007

Swinging quartet The Notables will be performing snappy tunes from the 1930's-50's at the brand new Tony Starlight's Supper Club & Lounge (3728 NE Sandy Blvd.) several dates in February. Joining them will be special guest singer Gracie Holloway. On Valentine's Day, Tony Starlight will join the band in performing prom-night favorites of the 1940's.

The Notables met while playing together in the house band on the Columbia riverboat Queen of the West, one of the last bands in the country playing a wide range of mid-20th century material. They're young, they swing like crazy and they know a lot of great tunes.

Gracie Holloway is a founding member of New York City's Howland Sisters, a retro trio specializing in songs from the 1880's through the 1940's popularized by the likes of the Mae West and the Boswell Sisters. Ms. Holloway has appeared in several Off- and Off-off-Broadway comedies and been a featured performer on over 25 records in a vastly diverse range of styles.
